COUNTY OF KING            )

NO. 11036

AFFIDAVIT FOR SEARCH WARRANT

The undersigned on oath states:                 I believe that:

- Evidence of the crime(s) of Murder , and
- Contraband, the fruits of a crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed, and
- Weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed, and
- A person for whose arrest there is probable cause, or who is unlawfully restrained is/are located in, on, or about the following described premises, vehicle or person:

The apartment located at 12320 Roosevelt Way NE #302 in Seattle, King County, Washington

My belief is based upon the following facts and circumstances:

Your affiant is a Seattle Police Detective assigned to the Homicide Unit. I have been with the Seattle Police Department for more than twenty-six years, and have worked in the Homicide Unit for twelve years.

I am assisting in the investigation of Seattle Police incident number 06-120153, which reports the following facts:

On the evening of March 24th 2006 there was an event at the Capitol Hill Performing Arts Center, located at 1621 12th Ave. Seattle. The event was semi-private and attracted several hundred alternative music fans.

Among those in attendance at the party were several males in their mid-twenties who live together at 2112 E. Republican St. As the event was winding down, these men invited several in attendance to an "after-party" at their home. Some of the people invited were known to them, while others were not. Many of those invited were less than eighteen years of age.

One of the persons invited was a man later identified as Kyle Aaron Huff W/M 9/22/77.

Anthony Moulton is one of the young men that live at the Republican St. address. He said that when he and his roommates discussed inviting people over, they discussed inviting Huff. He said that they didn't know Huff, but that Huff was standing on the sidelines quietly keeping to himself. Moulton had never met Huff before, and described him as being "sketchy". Moulton defines "sketchy" as being different, or putting off "bad vibes" and he thought it would be entertaining to have such a person at his house. He said that when he invited Huff over, Huff seemed friendly enough and agreed to come over.

SEARCH WARRANT

TO ANY PEACE OFFICER IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Upon the sworn complaint made before me, the affidavit for which is incorporated by reference herein, there is probable cause to believe that the crime(s) of MURDER has been committed and that evidence of that crime; or contraband, the fruits of crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed; or weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed; or a person for whose arrest there is probable cause, or who is unlawfully restrained is/are concealed in or on certain premises, vehicles or persons.

YOU ARE COMMANDED to:

1. Search within 10 days of this date, the premises vehicle or person described as follows:

The apartment located at 12013 Roosevelt Way NE #302, Seattle, King County, Washington

2. Seize if located, the following property or persons:

Evidence of the crime of murder including weapons and ammunition, explosives or other hazardous material, papers, diaries or other written material, (including any computer files, hard drives or other virtual material) that may reflect a plan or scheme to commit a crime such as this, or the reason it was done, or who, if anyone, assisted in it's commission. Narcotics or medication that would contribute to the understanding of the mental state of Kyle Huff at the time of this shooting. Papers or other items which would assist in confirming the identity of the suspect in this incident; phone or contact information for next of kin or any other item obviously related to the commission of this crime.

3. Promptly return this warrant to me or the clerk of this court; the return must include an inventory of all property seized.

A copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken shall be given to the person from whom or from whose premises property is taken. If no person is found in possession, a copy and receipt shall be conspicuously posted at the place where the property is found

When they arrived at the house on Republican St., Moulton said that Huff was one of the first people to arrive. He said that Huff pretty much kept to himself, engaged in some small talk, but didn't cause any problems.

Other guests described Huff as quiet and to himself, but very polite and friendly in those conversations he did have with other guests.

Just before seven AM, the party was starting to wind down. Jesiah Martin also lives at the Republican St. address. He was getting ready to go to bed, but went to the computer in the kitchen to check his email. The computer sits next to a window that looks out to the front porch of the house. Martin heard loud bangs coming from outside. He thought someone was firing firecrackers. He was concerned that they would disturb the neighbors. He then heard screams. The blinds on the windows were closed. He opened them and looked out. He saw the large man he didn't know, but had seen at the party, (Huff) standing on the porch facing the house. He saw that this man had a shotgun in his hands held at his hip. He said that the man was firing into the front door of the house. He said that the man had a look of contentment on his face—almost a smile as he fired.

Other witnesses said that the shooter walked calmly through the house, firing both a shotgun and handgun at everyone he saw. At one point he shot a male victim near the front door. The victim went down. He calmly walked to the man and fired a round into the down victim's head at point blank range, killing him.

Victims were running through the house hiding where they could. The shooter calmly walked through the house, opening doors, looking for victims, firing repeatedly. One victim, hiding under a bed in one of the bedrooms saw the shooters feet as he walked into the room, and heard him say, "I've got enough ammunition to shoot everybody."

Alissa Dunn, aged 17, was in an upstairs bathroom with her boyfriend when the shooting started. When the shots were fired, they locked the bathroom doors. They then heard someone try the door. A moment later, a bullet was fired through the door into the bathroom, missing them.

Many people called 911. Officers responded and arrived within moments of the call. The first officer to arrive saw a white male walking from the scene holding what appeared to be a shotgun. The officer yelled for the subject to drop the gun. The subject put the gun in his mouth and fired, killing himself.

Detectives tentatively identified the shooter as Huff. He was armed with both the shotgun and a handgun, as well as bandoliers of shotgun ammunition, and a pouch of .40 caliber ammunition.

His truck was located nearby. In plain view in the car was at least one AR-15 Assault Rifle, numerous rounds of ammunition for that, and two five gallon gas cans full of gas.

Detectives determined that he lives at 12320 Roosevelt Ave. NE #302 in Seattle.

Detectives spoke to the apartment manager about Huff. She said that Huff lives at that address with his identical twin brother. She said they have lived there for some time and have never caused a problem. She described Huff and his brother as very close. She said that the brother, Kane Huff drives a truck that is not where it is normally parked.

One witness at the scene said he thought Kyle Huff may have made a phone call shortly before coming back with the weapons, but that is unclear at this point.

The fact that Kyle Huff had as much weaponry as he had indicates that he either had plans to carry out and attack like this, or someone brought it to him just prior to the shooting.

Your affiant requests a warrant to search the address at 12023 Roosevelt Way NE #302 for evidence of the crime of murder including weapons and ammunition, explosives or other hazardous material, papers, diaries or other written material (including any computer files, hard drives or other virtual material) that may reflect a plan or scheme to commit a crime such as this, or the reason it was done, or who, if anyone, assisted in it's commission. Narcotics or medication that would contribute to the understanding of the mental state of Kyle Huff at the time of this shooting. Papers or other items which would assist in confirming the identity of the suspect in this incident; phone or contact information for next of kin or any other item obviously related to the commission of this crime.
